ANTELOPE GENIE

GEN-AI Document Classification with Summarization

ANTELOPE GENIE

Antelope Genie is a cutting-edge generative AI function integrated into an enterprise workspace document management system. It analyzes data and content to deliver actionable insights, streamline workflows, and enhance decision-making.

Revolutionize document processing with our Generative AI-powered extraction and auto-classification system. Experience unprecedented accuracy in handling diverse file formats while transforming unstructured data into actionable business insights.

AI-Powered Data Classification and Extraction

Antelope Genie automatically splits and accurately categorizes multiple documents into their respective cloud folders, saving manual sorting time while ensuring easy access and review – boosting document management efficiency.

Antelope Genie automatically extracts key information from diverse documents* regardless of format - including receipts, bills, bank statements - supporting:

- Chinese (Simplified/Traditional)
- English/Japanese text
- Handwritten notes
- Marked-up revisions

Eliminates manual data entry while ensuring 99.8% accuracy.

SUMMARIZE SMART, LEARN FASTER CHATBOT WITH RAG

AI Summarization enables efficient content analysis, condensing lengthy documents into concise summaries while retaining key information. Users can also interact with the summarized content through an intuitive chat interface for quick clarification or deeper exploration.

AI Chatbot aggregates and cross-references multiple workspace documents, providing precise, context-aware responses to user queries. Whether comparing contracts, extracting trends from reports, or answering compliance questions, the chatbot delivers consolidated insights in real time.

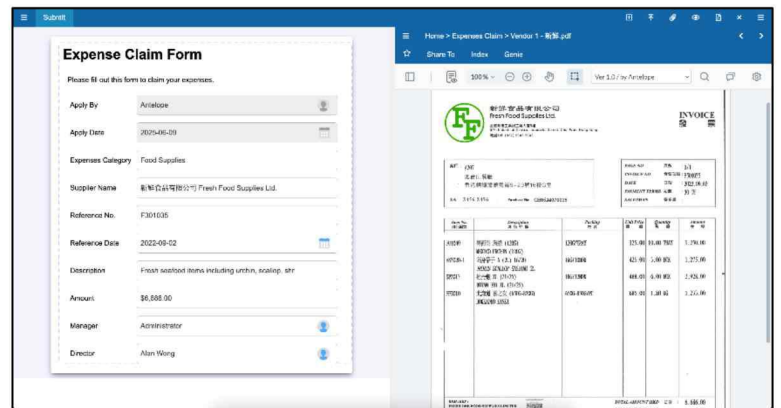

REMIND YOU AND HASHTAG YOU

AI Reminder automatically identifies critical dates within documents (e.g., deadlines, appointments) and sends targeted alerts to relevant recipients, ensuring timely follow-ups and reducing oversight risks.

AI Hashtag simplifies document organization by analyzing keywords and auto-tagging files with relevant hashtags. This allows users to instantly retrieve related documents across the entire repository with a single click, eliminating manual searches.

FROM RECEIPT TO REIMBURSEMENT IN 60 SECONDS

Antelope Genie automatically generates completed reimbursement forms from scanned receipts, then routes them for approval. The fully automated process includes real-time tracking for complete transparency.
